

PEDAS Virtual Programme.

This week's assignment is inspired by a recent Facebook post by Sarah MacDonald, (talented local abstract artist & good friend of PEDAS).

Her painting is called: 'Make Life Simpler' and is in black and white mixed media.

'Make Life Simpler' black and white mixed media work, 20 x 20 cm, is one of a series of 4, and she asks 'what thoughts emerge?'

Have a go yourself at a similar mixed media image.... collage, paint, charcoal etc. No colour, only black, white and shades of grey in between.

Having no colour means that the image is open to a wider range of interpretations. Find interesting and unusual juxtapositions of shapes and gestures... but don't make it of anything, and don't overthink it!

Do a few versions and post your favourite on Pedas@home Facebook page. What thoughts emerge for you?
