

Penny Wilton (1952 – 2022) was a renowned local artist based in Poole, Dorset. Her work appears on walls around the world from Europe to New Zealand, Australia, Canada and of course here in the UK. A passionate and prolific painter, she inspired many through her teaching. Penny developed a love for bold acrylic works and this became her signature style. Her portfolio included watercolour, acrylic and mixed media – with commissions for Sunseeker, FJB Hotels and Pizza Express, as well as many private clients.

Since Penny's sad and untimely passing it has been our vision to share her work more widely, while doing good for a charitable cause – one that was, quite literally, close to her heart and so supportive during her lifetime: The British Heart Foundation (BHF).

We have collated 40 of Penny's original artworks and will be holding an online 'silent' auction to raise funds for the BHF.

In case you're not familiar with the concept of a 'silent' auction – this simply means confidential bids are placed on items during a set timeframe. After the auction closes, the highest-listed bidder for each item 'wins'. We have included some guide prices – but these are set intentionally low to encourage your best bids!

A special invitation...

Finally, if you miss out on a 'Penny painting' in the silent auction there will be another opportunity to secure an artwork:

We will be holding an Art Sale of Penny's work on Saturday 29 June (10am – 3pm) at The Church of the Transfiguration church hall, Chaddesley Glen, BH13 7PF.

We do hope you can come along and join us for tea, cake and creativity! Please share with all your family and friends – everyone is welcome!

With grateful thanks, Ed Wilton
